Delafield Brewhaus

A beautifully remodeled banquet room and a new head chef cooking mouthwatering new menu items are among the latest things brewing at Delafield Brewhaus.

Experienced chef Randy Savage brings more than 20 years of experience to the popular Delafield restaurant and microbrewery that has been serving delicious meals and award-winning beers to satisfied customers for the last five years.

"He is a hands-on chef with enormous pride," said General Manager Eric Knutson.

The Brewhaus, boasting a newly carpeted and painted banquet room, now offers room combinations for groups from 10 to 200 people.

New appetizers, including a rib sampler and Cajun onion straws, join classic menu favorites such as the beer-battered fish fry.

Customers who visit the friendly, fast and family-oriented restaurant on the weekend will enjoy live music, including blues, jazz and pop rock.

Knutson unites with brewmaster John Harrison and banquet manager Jane Schulz to offer customers a unique dining experience.

Delafield Brewhaus, at 3832 Hillside Drive in Delafield, is open for lunch Tuesday through Sunday from 11 a.m. to 4 p.m. Dinner hours are Monday through Saturday, 4 to 10 p.m., and Sunday, 4 to 9 p.m.

The restaurant serves pizza and appetizers until 11 p.m. on weeknights and Sundays, and until midnight on Saturdays. Call (262) 646-7821.
